

MARCH 2024

Intermediate Literacy Calendar

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
						1 On this day in 1941, Nashville, Tennessee became home to the first FM radio station. In honor of the day, listen to your favorite song and then find out all you can about the singer and songwriter.
Women's History Month 3 Women rock! Celebrate this month by reading some of these amazing biographies!	March Fourth and Do Something Day 4 Celebrate the day by marching forth towards your dreams! Do you have a dream or goal? If not, make one and then get to work making it happen!	Learn What Your Name Means Day 5 Do you know what your name means? Find out here and also see how many people share your name.	6 Make some rainbow art! No rules-just make sure you can see the colors of the rainbow in your finished project.	Alexander Graham Bell Day 7 Alexander Graham Bell received a patent for the telephone on this day in 1876. Phones have changed considerably since then. What do you think they will look like in another 100 years?	8 Spend some extra time reading today!	Dr. Seuss's Birthday 2 Today is Dr. Seuss's birthday and Read Across America Day. Celebrate with these activities and read alouds.
10 Tomorrow is National Napping Day. In honor of the holiday, do you know how the phrase "cat nap" got its name? See if you are right!	Worship of Tools Day 11 Tools definitely make our lives easier. What tool could you not live without? Why? Does your family agree? If not, what tool would they pick?	Plant a Flower Day 12 What is your favorite flower? What if you could design a new kind of flower? What would it look like? Draw a picture and show us!	13 Spring arrives in one week! Get outside and enjoy the last of winter today. What changes do you see taking place outside?	Pi Day 14 Did you know scientists have been studying Pi for thousands of years. Learn more here and eat a piece of pie to celebrate the day!	Absolutely Incredible Kid Day 15 It's Absolutely Incredible Kid Day. YOU are incredible! Make a list of all the amazing things you have accomplished this year.	16 Try your hand at paper art and make one of these paper shamrocks.
St. Patrick's Day 17 Happy St. Patrick's Day! Be sure to wear green and try out your best Irish accent!	18 Read together as a family today. You can each read your own book or take turns reading aloud to each other!	Let's Laugh Day 19 Do you know what the study of laughter is called or if laughter really is contagious? Click here to find out.	Spring Equinox 20 Today is the first day of spring and the spring equinox. Learn more here.	World Poetry Day 21 Write a poem and share it with friends and family.	Goof Off Day 22 Everyone needs a day to goof off now and then. Here are some ideas on how to celebrate.	Near Miss Day 23 500,000 miles seems like a long way, but that's how close an asteroid came to Earth on this day in 1989!
24 Hug your family today. Did you know that hugs do a body good? They do! Hugs can help you grow, lower stress, and make you feel safe.	Waffle Day 25 Waffles, yum! What's your favorite waffle topping? Try this easy recipe and enjoy breakfast for dinner!	Make Up Your Own Holiday Day 26 Today's the day! Design a holiday of your own. What would it honor? How would people celebrate?	27 Mount St. Helens erupted on this day in 1980. Ash from the eruption circled the Earth within just fifteen days!	Weed Appreciation Day 28 Weeds can be helpful and beautiful. Learn more about these misunderstood plants here.	29 How has your life changed over the past year? Write a paragraph or draw a picture that shows what life has been like for your family this past year.	30 The Unites States agreed to purchase Alaska on this day in 1867. It officially became the 49th state in 1959.
31 The Eiffel Tower opened on this day in 1889. This amazing landmark has some hidden secrets. You can learn about them here.						